

A set of 52 heart-warming cards designed to create conversations of hope and change

Angels—the strengths of everyday kindness is a set of 52 cards, each of which represents an important quality or skill that we may want to celebrate in our families, workplaces, classrooms or communities. Each card names a single skill or quality such as contentment, peace, assertiveness, clarity, openness, balance or adventure.

Counsellors, social workers, teachers, trainers, managers and motivators can use these cards to build conversations, encourage storytelling, and help people of all ages think differently about who they are, what is important, and how to navigate life's ups and downs.

What do they look like? How are they used?
How do I order them?

Use these cards to ask questions like:

- Is there a card that reminds you of someone you know?
- Can you choose a card that represents something you have received or given today? (It could be a quality, a feeling, a virtue, or an act of kindness.)
- Think of someone who could really use some support right now. What card represents a quality you would want to 'visit' them?
- Is there a card that represents a strength you would like to develop more? What is one step you could take towards this?
- For something you are about to undertake, which two cards represent the strengths you will need most?
