

STRENGTHS CIRCLES

Discover what many indigenous communities have known forever: sitting in a circle with others and establishing simple, respectful guidelines for communicating might just be the most useful solution-finding technique ever invented!

The Circles approach to groups and teams is safe, respectful, democratic, inclusive and strengths-based. Each Strengths in Circles card contains a building block for putting Circles into practice—in schools, teams, organisations and communities.

42 cards arranged into 6 suits based on the ASPIRE acronym:

- AGENCY
- SAFETY
- POSITIVITY
- INCLUSION
- RESPECT
- EQUALITY

'I wholeheartedly recommend this card set, particularly to educators. I hope it will find its place in schools to give guidance and focus to the strengths advocated in this incisive and exemplary resource.'

From the foreword by Bill Rogers
